Haus of Ruby's Rebels Code of Conduct

- Students should arrive promptly and attend classes regularly.
- Students participate at their own risk and are obliged to inform the staff of any existing injuries or medical conditions.
- From time to time it is necessary for the teachers to use physical contact when helping to improve pupils' posture or assist movements. This includes physical contact between students.

- The staff at the Haus of Ruby's Rebels reserves the right to exclude students at any time from lessons at its discretion.
- You are responsible for your own belongings, so please keep them safe and leave any valuables at home or out of sight. The room is checked at the end of every class, but if anything is to be damaged or lost the Haus of Ruby's Rebels accepts no liability.
- Whilst we actively encourage our pupils to take part in related activities, pupils who attend our studios are not permitted to take consistent group dance classes elsewhere in subjects offered at the Haus of Ruby's Rebels. This is to avoid a conflict of interest in the training we offer, and to protect the development of each student. Students can perform for other producers and take workshops and sessions provided by other professional teachers.
- The Haus of Ruby's Rebels policy for rearranging private lessons is only done so if the teacher or the school are unable to fulfil the commitment of the lesson i.e. due to a teacher's illness or on the rare occasion where rehearsals that may arise clash with a private lesson. Lessons cannot be rearranged due to pupil illness or for a pupil to fulfil another commitment whatever that involves.
- If a student leaves the Haus of Ruby's Rebels they can not use the Haus of Ruby's Rebels choreography including any sequences of eight (8), they can also not use any of the Haus of Ruby's Rebels costumes or designs as they belong to the Haus of Ruby's Rebels. They can not use any professional photos that have been paid for by the Haus of Ruby's Rebels.
- Students may be asked to leave the Haus of Ruby's Rebels if they do not comply with this policy or cause any upset or injury to other students or instructors.
- Students who do not pay their fees will be dismissed from the Haus of Ruby's Rebels.
- Due to the nature of the Haus of Ruby's Rebels classes we expect all our students to treat everyone with kindness and respect.

By attending Haus of Ruby's Rebels classes you are accepting these terms and conditions.
